Farmingville, NY - On August 7 Supervisor Ed Romaine, Councilman Dan Panico, Councilwoman Connie Kepert and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartwright joined other elected officials to celebrate the 5th Annual Grown on Long Island Day at the Suffolk County Farm in Yaphank. The event was sponsored by Cornell Cooperative Extension and the Long Island Farm Bureau. This annual countywide farmers market showcased locally grown produce and other items, including wine, honey, flowers and seafood. It was a fun-filled day for the entire family that also featured music, wagon rides and more.
